STUDY QUESTIONS

KEY PASSAGE: John 21:15-25

Opening: Read John 21:15-25. From the passage/sermon, what truths impacted you the most?

1. Read Matthew 26:30-35 and John 18:15-18 and 25-27.

a. Compare/contrast these passages with John 21:15-19.

b. What do you learn about Jesus' character?

c. What do you learn about Peter's heart?

2. John 21:25 talks about the breadth of Christ's work. List some ways you've seen Jesus working in your own life.

STUDY QUESTIONS

3. Read 1 Corinthians 10:12. Peter swore he would never deny Christ, yet he did. But, Jesus restored and forgave him.

a. Think of a time where you thought too highly of yourself. What was the situation?

b. How did God shape your heart in that situation?

c. In what ways did that change the way you view your sin?

d. How did it change the way you view God's grace?

Application: Ask God to reveal any blind spots you have in regard to sin and pride. Confess those to God. Take some time to pray--ask God to move in your heart and protect you from being blind to your sin struggles.
