

God of My Today SERMON NOTES

TRUE: SO I TRUST
DANIEL 2:31-49 | OCTOBER 16, 2016
SENIOR PASTOR
TIM HARKNESS

Intro:

1. Recognize that God is all-_____ and the revealer of all truth. (31-35)

2. Recognize that He is all-_____ and in charge of even kings and nations. (36-45)

IMAGE	INTERPRETATION	POSSIBLE MEANING

3. See that God gets all the _____. (46-49)

New Reading Plan:

Monday, Oct. 17th - Psalm 147:1-20

The Lord knows all

Tuesday, Oct. 18th - Psalm 75:1-10

He is in charge

Wednesday, Oct. 19th - Isaiah 48:1-22

See His glory

Thursday, Oct. 20th - John 4:1-26

Worship in spirit and truth

Friday, Oct. 21st - Daniel 3:1-30

Glorious: So I Will Worship

IMPACT GROUP QUESTIONS

KEY PASSAGE: Daniel 2:31-49

Opening: Read Daniel 2:31-49. From the passage/sermon, what truths impacted you the most?

1. What are the main events in the flow of the story?
 - a. How did Daniel interpret Nebuchadnezzar's dream?
 - b. What character traits did Nebuchadnezzar attribute to the Lord?
2. In this story, we see a great picture of our God who is true.
 - a. How do you see God as true in this story?
 - b. In your life, how do you see God as true and trustworthy?
3. Read Psalm 147:1-11.
 - a. What truths do you find about God from these verses?
 - b. How can you apply those truths to specific circumstances you're going through?

IMPACT GROUP QUESTIONS

4. Read Psalm 139. God is omniscient—He knows everything, omnipresent—He is everywhere, and omnipotent—He is all-powerful.

- a. List how God interacts with us in his omniscience (1-6), omnipresence (7-12), and omnipotence (13-16).
- b. How does this help you place your trust more fully in Him?
- c. From verses 23-24, in light of God's character, what does our worshipful response look like?
- d. Which of these characteristics do you need to cling to right now? Why?

Application: What truths from God's word do you need to take hold of to rely on God's faithfulness rather than your feelings?