Book of the Bible

Micah, Genesis, Isaiah

Lesson Summary

Throughout the Old Testament there are many promises given about the coming Messiah. The first part of Micah 5 talks about the Babylonian army who would come to attack Israel. This would be a difficult time for the people of Israel. God gives the promise of a future hope through the birth of Jesus the Messiah. In Micah 5:2 the promise is given of the future Messiah, that He would be born in the town of Bethlehem. In Genesis 49:10, we read Jesus will come from the tribe of Judah. The tribe of Judah is the kingly tribe. In Isaiah 53 we read about the life of Jesus, His death and resurrection. This passage reveals Jesus to be the innocent Servant who died in the place of guilty sinners. Jesus made the way for people to be in a right relationship with God. Jesus Christ is the Messiah, the One who came to fulfill all these promises that were made in the Old Testament. We can trust God will always fulfill the promises He makes.
