Book of the Bible

Matthew and Genesis

Lesson Summary

In Matthew 1, we see how Jesus is the rightful heir who will reign on King David's throne forever. During this time in Matthew, royalty had to prove how they had the right to rule as King. The beginning part of Matthew shows Jesus' earthly right to rule. In Matthew 1:18-23, we see how Jesus has the God given right to rule on King David's throne. Jesus' birth was very different than any other human birth. Jesus did not have an earthly father to whom He was born through. Instead, Jesus was born through an earthly mother and the Holy Spirit. Jesus' birth was promised starting in the book of Genesis. In Genesis 3:15, Jesus was to be born of a woman. In Matthew 1, we see this woman was named Mary and His name would be called Immanuel, God with us. Jesus is the Messiah who will reign on King David's throne forever.
