Opening: What truths impacted you most from the sermon/scripture?

1. Read Ephesians 4:25-32:

2. How do you handle confrontation?

3. How does holding on to anger give the devil an opportunity?

4. List all the times this passage uses the word “let” in this passage.

a. Explain each statement.

b. Describe how to live out these “let” statements.

c. What temptations keep us from living these “let” statements out?

IMPACT GROUP QUESTIONS

5. How can we speak words that build up and give grace (vs. 29) even when we need to confront sin? (Note the difference between confronting sin vs. confronting preferences.)

6. How do we grieve the Holy Spirit in context of this passage?

7. If God chose to forgive you the way you forgive others, what would His forgiveness look like?

LIFE APPLICATION

Based on what you have learned from the study, or from the sermon, what thing(s) do you need to go after?
